

The Tytherley Woods Project 2008 volunteer training schedule

The Tytherley Woods Project is part of Butterfly Conservation's South East Woodlands Project, during the next three years we hope to train and support a new team of volunteer surveyors who can help record woodland butterflies and their habitats. The following three workshops are the first of the Tytherley areas annual program, if you would like to come along to any of these please book via kdent@butterfly-conservation.org or call Kate on 02380 383 455. All workshops are free.

Saturday 31st May 2008 – Woodland Butterfly Identification

Bentley Wood (SU250295) 10.30am-1pm. Trainer David Lambert (Bentley Wood). Course organiser and contact for further details Kate Dent (Tytherley Woods Project Officer). Please contact Kate to book a place on this course and to get exact details of the meeting place. Participants will be welcome to spend the afternoon after the course exploring Bentley Woods 665 ha at their leisure.

Saturday 21st June 2008 – Woodland Habitat Assessment

Blackmoor Copse (SU234288) 10.30am-1pm. Trainer Kate Dent (Tytherley Woods Project Officer) accompanied by Chris Riley (Wiltshire Wildlife Trust Reserves Officer). Please contact Kate to book a place on this course and to get exact details of the meeting place. We will be looking at woodland regeneration and typical woodland ground flora, it will be an opportunity to trial a new methodology we have been developing especially for this project.

Sunday 20th July 2008 – Butterfly Survey and Recording Techniques

Mottisfont Abbey (SU327270) 10.30am-1pm. Trainer Andy Barker (Butterfly Conservation Volunteer) accompanied by Heather Fisher (National Trust). Please contact Kate to book a place on this course and to get exact details of the meeting place.

All courses are primarily aimed at people with limited previous survey experience, or those who are feeling a little rusty after a break and would like to brush up on their skills. If you are unsure then please do just call Kate for an informal chat, alternatively if you already feel competent and would like to survey this year please get in touch.
